

Hi DANIEL -

At iFlip, we're committed to providing you with the best possible user experience. We've been working tirelessly behind the scenes to make improvements so that you can get the most out of our automated investing platform.

Now, we're excited to announce the release of our new iFlip mobile app and desktop platform! Here is what you can expect from our updates.

New mobile app

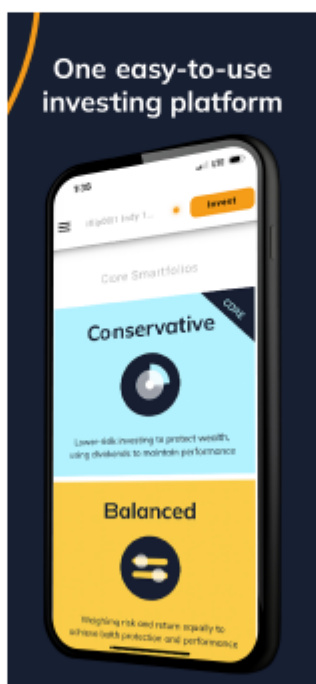

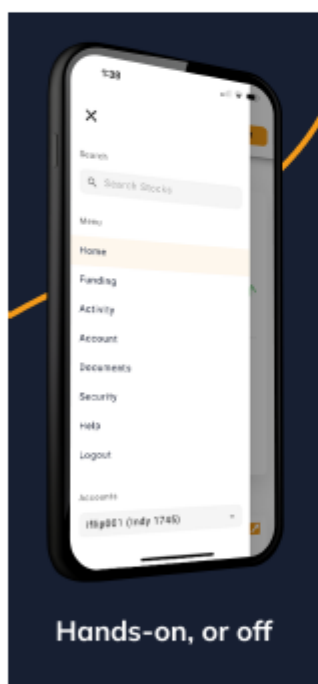

We know it's taken some time, but our new mobile app experience is finally here! With massive stability improvements, you'll be amazed at its speed, stability, new functionality, and heightened security.

User experience upgrades

We've introduced several big upgrades to make your iFlip experience even better. These include improvements to:

- Equity curve performance
- Stock dashboard performance
- Mobile-friendly website
- Banking and account funding
- App search

Bug fixes and faster releases

With our new release cycle, we will continue to improve our platform and release app updates faster than ever before. This means quicker bug fixes and less time between upgrades.

Future Updates

Best of all, our new platform allows us to dynamically push updates in near real-time. So you can expect frequent updates, and enhancements for the future.

We value your input on making iFlip the best automated investing platform on the market. Let us know what you think of our new app and desktop experience, and, as always, if you have any questions don't hesitate to reach out.

In the meantime, check out what our CEO Randy Tate has to say about these exciting updates!

Happy investing!
